Eid al-Fitr

Eid al-Fitr is an important celebration at the end of the holy month of Ramadan. Muslims celebrate Eid al-Fitr on the 10th month of the Islamic calendar for one to three days depending on the country. On the first day, they get up early, put on new clothes and go to the mosque to pray. After that, they greet others and wish them 'Eid Mubarak'

- Happy Eid. Later, they go home and have a big meal with their families. At Eid al-Fitr, Muslims spend time with their families and friends, and eat delicious food and desserts. They also give children gifts like toys and money. Eid al-Fitr is a very special celebration for Muslims when they show gratitude for what they have and share it with those in need.
